

Neo-soul, hip-hop, with a touch of Jazz

In the vast array of human experience, there is an indulgence of sight and sound. It is at the intersection of Afro beats, Hip-hop, Neo-soul and classical masterpiece. It gives nod to various ethnicities and due reverence to the Creator. It is created to inspire and inspired to heal. At that very intersection, music lovers can share the common experience of refreshing their souls with the smooth yet rhythmic sounds of the one and only Kat Lincoln.

Kat's captivating tone and wide vocal range bring to mind the likes of Billie Holiday, Jill Scott, Erykah Badu. The most important aspect of Kat's music is her message – one that comes from a place of both purity and purpose.

"I am a healer. My message will touch your soul."

Kat heard her calling to change the world through music from the time she was 4 years old. The positive messages in her music bear testament to her irrepressible spirit. Born in Monrovia, Liberia and having spent her formative years witnessing the atrocities of civil war, Kat's refreshing musical style reflects her heroine's journey of triumph over tragedy.

Her story begs to be told as it brings the gift of healing for the human spirit. Kat is the messenger and love is the message.

"...my beautiful, ugly, gorgeous, bitter story."
